ADDENDA

TO

JOHN W. HASELTINE'S SIXTY-FIFTH SALE,

March 1 and 2, 1883.

[The attention of Collectors is especially directed to the following pieces, many of which are exceedingly rare and some have never before been offered at either Public or Private Sale. I have never seen duplicates of the following seven Twenty Cent Pieces, and they are of such extreme rarity that the Cabinet of United States Mint does not contain them. This Addenda will be sold after Lot 635 in the original Catalogue.]

1 1874. United States Twenty Cent Piece. Obv., Liberty, with pole and cap in right hand, seated on a globe on which is a band inscribed "Liberty." Sheaf of wheat behind. Olive branch at the knee of Liberty. 13 stars in semi circle above. Rev., similar to that adopted in 1875, but has longer arrows in eagle's claw and smaller leaves in olive branch. Copper proof. Excessively rare.

2 1874. United States Twenty Cent Piece. Same design as preceding. Struck in aluminum. Proof. Excessively rare.

3 1875. United States Twenty Cent Piece. Liberty seated on a globe. Olive branch in her right hand. Flags and a sheaf of wheat behind. Ocean and steamship in the distance. 13 stars above. Rev., same design as No. 1. Silver proof Excessively rare.

4 1875. United States Twenty Cent Piece Obv., the same as the preceding (No. 3). Rev., "20 Cents" in 2 lines in centre surrounded by a laurel wreath open at top. "United States of America" around the whole. Silver proof. Excessively rare.

5 1875. United States Twenty Cent Piece. The same as preceding (No. 4). Aluminum proof. Excessively rare.

6 1875. Twenty Cent Piece. Obv., similar to the regular issue, but smaller band and word "Liberty" on the shield. Date a great deal smaller. Rev., the same as No. 1., with long arrows and small leaves Copper proof. Excessively rare.

7 1875. Twenty Cent Piece. Obv., head of Liberty, with fillet or crown inscribed "Liberty." Rev., "20" incused in a shield supported by arrows and olive branches. "Cents" below. "United States of America" above. Copper proof. Excessively rare.

8 1870. Longacre Pattern Dollar. Obv., Indian queen seated with pole and Liberty cap in right hand. 2 flags behind. Name "Longacre" below. Rev., same as the regular issue. Copper. Brilliant proof. Smooth edge. Excessively rare.

9 1871. Pattern Dollar. Longacre's design, similar to preceding. Executed by Barber. Rev., same as regular issue. Copper. Brilliant proof. Smooth edge. Excessively rare.

10 1872. Commercial Dollar. Obv., same as the regular issue. Rev., "United States of America," "Commercial Dollar, 420 grains, 900 fine." 'God our Trust." Silver. Brilliant proof. Reeded edge. The rarest of the Commercial Dollars, guaranteed only 5 struck. Of greater rarity than the Commercial Dollar sold in Mr. Britton's sale, No. 401, for $115. This is limited to $80.

11 1860. Pattern Five Dollar Gold Piece. Obv., head of Liberty in a Phrygian cap, with starry chaplet. "Liberty" inscused on one of the ribbons of the cap. 13 stars arouud. Rev., small eagle with scroll in its beak, inscrib·d "E Pluribus Unum." "United States of America" above. "Five Dollars" below. Brilliant proof. This piece is conceded to be the most beautiful and chaste specimen in design and execution ever struck in the United States Mint. Excessively rare, there being but two known in Gold. The companion piece being in the cabinet of Mr. R. C. Davis, of Philadelphia.

12 1856. Nickel Cent. Uncirculated. Has been proof. Rare.

13 1873. Set of the Pattern Trade Dollars. Silver. Brilliant proofs. Six pieces. Rare.

14 1871. Pattern Five Cent Piece. Obv., head of Liberty. Rev., "5 Cents, in two lines. Word "Cents" curved. Laurel wreath. Copper. Brilliant proof. Very rare.

15 1871. Pattern Five Cent Piece. Obv., similar to preceding, but larger planchet. Rev., "V Cents" in laurel wreath. A curious error of the engraver puts the thick part of the V on the wrong side. Copper. Brilliant proof. Very rare.

16 1871. The same as preceding, thinner planchet, with same error on reverse. Nickel proof. Very rare.

17 1882. Pattern Nickel Five Cent Piece. Designed for the use of the blind. Although the obverse and reverse are the same as the regular issue this has five bold ridges on the edge so that the blind could determine by the touch its denomination. Excessively rare. Only three struck, and not in the Mint Cabinet. Brilliant proof.

18 1856. Nickel Cent. Obv., same as usual type. Rev., oak wreath and shield. Uncirculated. Very rare. Limited to $10.

19 1868. Star Dime Pattern. Obv., shield, laurel wreath, etc. "Exchanged for United States Notes." Rev., "One Dime" with a star above, date below, the whole within the wreath. Silver nickel composition. Uncirculated. Very rare.

20 1865. Pattern Nickel Five Cent Piece. Obv., shield Rev., stars and rays, same as adopted in 1866. Proof. One of the rarest pattern coins known.

21 1787. Nova Eborae. Head to right. Rev., Liberty seated to right, A very extraordinary Colonial, the planchet being a combination of copper and brass. The only one I have ever seen or heard of, and believe to be unique. Very good, but a little nicked on obverse.

22 JUDEA. HALF SHEKEL of Simon Maccabeus. Obv., the cup of manna. Rev., the budding rod of Aaron. Legend in old Samaritan characters. "Half Shekel of Israel," etc A very fine sharp impression, partly oxidized, which should not be cleaned off as it is much prized by numismatists as an evidence of its age. Guaranteed genuine, and of much greater rarity than the shekel.

23 1796. United States Half Cent. Large planchet. Bold impression. Barely circulated. Light brown. I have never catalogued a finer half cent of this date, and doubt if it can be excelled. Excessively rare in this condition.

24 1797. Half Dime. Thirteen stars. (The rarest variety.) It is struck on a planchet slightly streaked, and has three small nicks on lower part of bust. Otherwise barely circulated, and I believe it is the best of this variety ever offered at auction. Extremely rare.

25 1851. Three Cent Silver Piece. Sharp bold impression, with proof surface. The finest I have ever seen.

26 1838. United States Cent. Proof. Beautiful bright red. Not quite as brilliant as proofs in the forties, but it is the handsomest cent of this date I have ever seen. Very rare.

27 1842. United States Cent. Small date. Strictly uncirculated. Bright original color without a blemish. In this condition rarer than a proof. I know of no other like it. A gem for a first-class cabinet.

28 1857. Nickel Cent. Brilliant proof. Seldom offered.

29 1854. United States Half Dollar. Brilliant proof. Excessively rare.

30 1854. United States Quarter Dollar. Brilliant proof. Excessively rare.

31 1852. United States Half Dollar. Philadelphia Mint. Strictly uncirculated. Mint lustre, sharp and beautiful. Very rare in this condition.

32 1833. United States Half Cent. Brilliant bright red proof. Excessively rare.

33 1807. United States Gold Quarter Eagle. Barely circulated. One of the finest I have seen. Rare.

34 Ancient Gold Bactrian Stater of Ooercus. Obv., warrior with shield. Rev., figure seated on a throne. Very fine. Rare.

35 1861. Confederate Cent. Brilliant proof in silver. Guaranteed only 12 struck and the dies long since destroyed. The printed certificate accompanies this. Very rare.

36 1861. The same. Copper proof. Only 55 struck. Rare.

37 Ancient Third Bronze of Numerianus. Rev., youth standing with globe and spear. "Principe Jvveat." Uncirculated. Very rare.

38 1853. Pattern Cent. Small size, struck in nickel. Very fine. Scarce.

39 1787. Auctori Plebis. Rev., Indep Et Liber. Very fine. As usual date not well on planchet. Rare.

40 1860. Confederate Token. "No Submission to the North." Rev., "The Wealth of the South." Brass. Uncirculated. Scarce.

41 1783. Washington and Independence Cent. A curious planchet of copper and silver combined. Poor. Rare curiosity.

42 1867. Rare Canadian Card. Obv., similar to the regular issue of the cent. Rev., "Devins & Bolton, Druggists, Montreal, July 1, 1867," etc. Uncirculated

43 H. Gagnon & Cie. Quebec Token. Obv., beaver, "Maison Jacques Cartier," etc. Uncirculated. Bright. Scarce.

45 1773 Set of Virginia Half Pennies, seven with seven strings to the harp; four with eight strings, and one with six strings, but all different varieties. Uncirculated Bright. Rare as a set. 11 pieces.

46. Franco-Americana Medal. Obv., Bartholdi's Light-House Statue. (To be placed in New York Harbor.) Distant birds-eye view of New York City; thirty eight small stars above, typical of the thirty-eight States in the Union. "Second Commemorative Monument of American Independence" around the stars. Rev., "In remembrance of the old friendship between the United States and France by public subscription among the citizens of BOOTH nations; 1776–1876. The misunderstanding in France that the Centennial was to be held in New York City caused these dies to be engraved, and when it was discovered that a serious mistake had occurred in spelling the word BOTH, and the Centennial was to be in Philadelphia, the dies were destroyed after but three copies were struck. Bronze proof. Excessively rare, and I believe the only one in the United States. Size 32.

47 1876. The Large Award Medal to Exhibitors at the International Exhibition at Philadelphia. Obv., seated figure holding wreath in outstretched right hand. Factory, anvil, artist's pallet, etc. Thirty-eight stars around, quartered by four medallions. Rev., "Awarded by United States Centennial Commission" in centre of wreath. Bronze. Very fine. Edge slightly dented. Never before offered at auction. Very rare. Size 48.

48 1876. Medal struck by the Brazilian Government in honor of the Centennial at Philadelphia. Obv., "P. II" crowned. Rev., "Prova Gunhada na Exposicao, Internacional de Philadelphia, 1876." Bronze. Very fine. Rare. Size 17.

49 Medal of President J. A. Garfield. Obv., head nearly facing. Rev., the all-seeing eye above. "God reigns," etc., in four lines in centre. Born, etc., above. Died, etc., below. Bronze proof. Size 24.

50 Medal of President Garfield. Head to right. Rev., "Souvenir" in centre. Bronze proof. Size 12.

50a 5867. Gold Medal. "Masonic Temple, Boston." Obv., the edifice. Rev., "New Masonic Temple." The all-seeing eye. "Dedicated June 24, A. L. 5867, Charles C. Dame." Square and compasses. "Grand-Master." Brilliant proof, in gold. Unique. This is the only one struck. Was presented to Edwin Forrest, the well-known actor, by his Masonic friends of Boston, and was sold at the sale of his effects in Philadelphia, for the benefit of the Forrest Home. Of the highest value, not only as being unique, but also as a souvenir of the great actor. Size 20.

51 1882. Medal of the Sharpless Family Reunion Bi-Centennial. Obv., the rock, inscribed 1682, at Ridley Creek, near Chester, Pennsylvania. Rev., coat of arms. Bronze proof. Size 24.

52 1882. Bi-Centennial. Head of Wm. Penn to left. Rev., Penn's house and City Hall. Bronze proof. Size 22.

53 1882. Bi-Centennial. Standing figure of Wm. Penn. Rev., Penn's house Copper proof. Size 20.

54 1882. The same. White metal proof.
